

How to Fill Your Lessons With Adult Students

Lessons for Adults: Helping adults of all ages and levels to become better musicians.

The key to successful adult lessons are making them accessible and flexible.

Offering lessons on all instruments and voice gives the adult lesson program variety.

Make sure that the environment is adult friendly in addition to kid friendly.

Make sure to offer classes that offer an "experience".

Classes should be low stress and fun.

Try to offer a variety of classes to appeal to different interests.

Utilize the expertise of your instructors to find interesting classes.

Be sure to offer many performance opportunities.

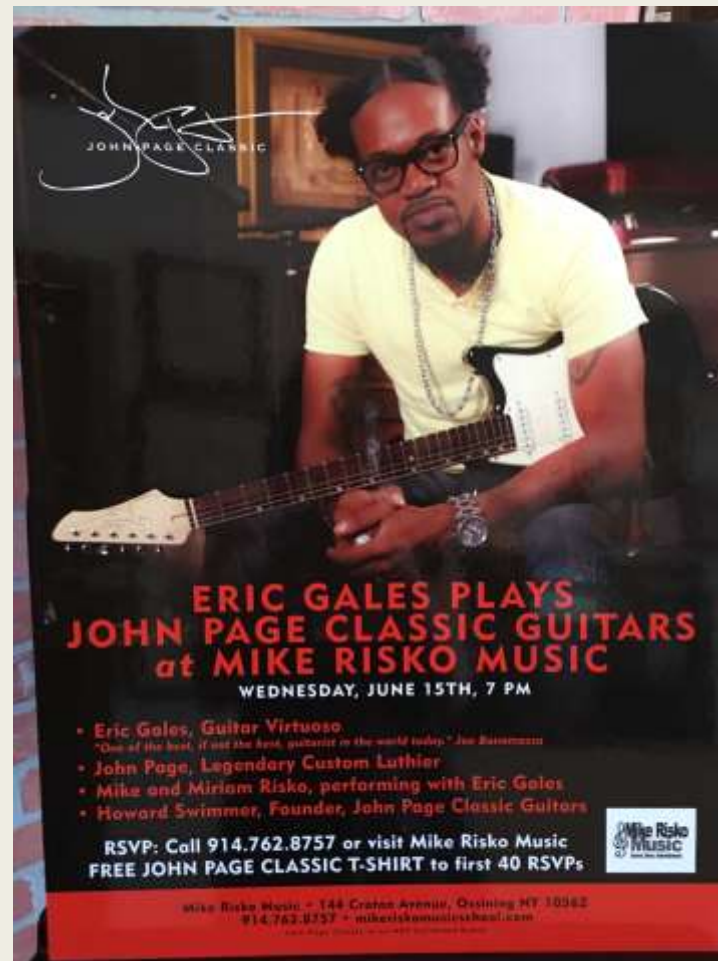

Offering different types of classes opens up the opportunities to more musicians.

Help adult students achieve goals to become working musicians.

Offer interesting programs to keep them engaged in music in addition to classes.
